

Honors College Advising

Important information for Honors students as they schedule each semester

Steps to Take

1. Find your major-related advisement sheet on the Honors Website: <https://www.wcupa.edu/deputy-provost/honorsCollege/advising.aspx>
2. Schedule a meeting with your department-assigned advisor, found on your myWCU account
3. Bring your advisement sheet to your advising meeting – explain how the sheet lists all the classes you are required to take
4. Look for your Honors College Schedule (generally sent in an email from Michelle) to see what Honors classes your Honors cohort is set to take this semester. Remember you can take Seminars during any semester!
5. If you are a Bridge Student, please consult Dr. Martin to ensure you are taking the classes you need
6. Honors Seminar Pathway students, please contact Dr. Wooten and check the catalog: <https://catalog.wcupa.edu/undergraduate/honors-college/honors-college/honors-college-seminar-pathway/>

Helpful Tips and Notes

Talk with upper class students in your major – they are a great resource for questions!

Create a spreadsheet including each semester up to graduation, and fill it in as you complete and plan courses to help you stay on track!

Try to plan when an Honors Seminar would best fit with your other classes – the seminar offerings change every semester.

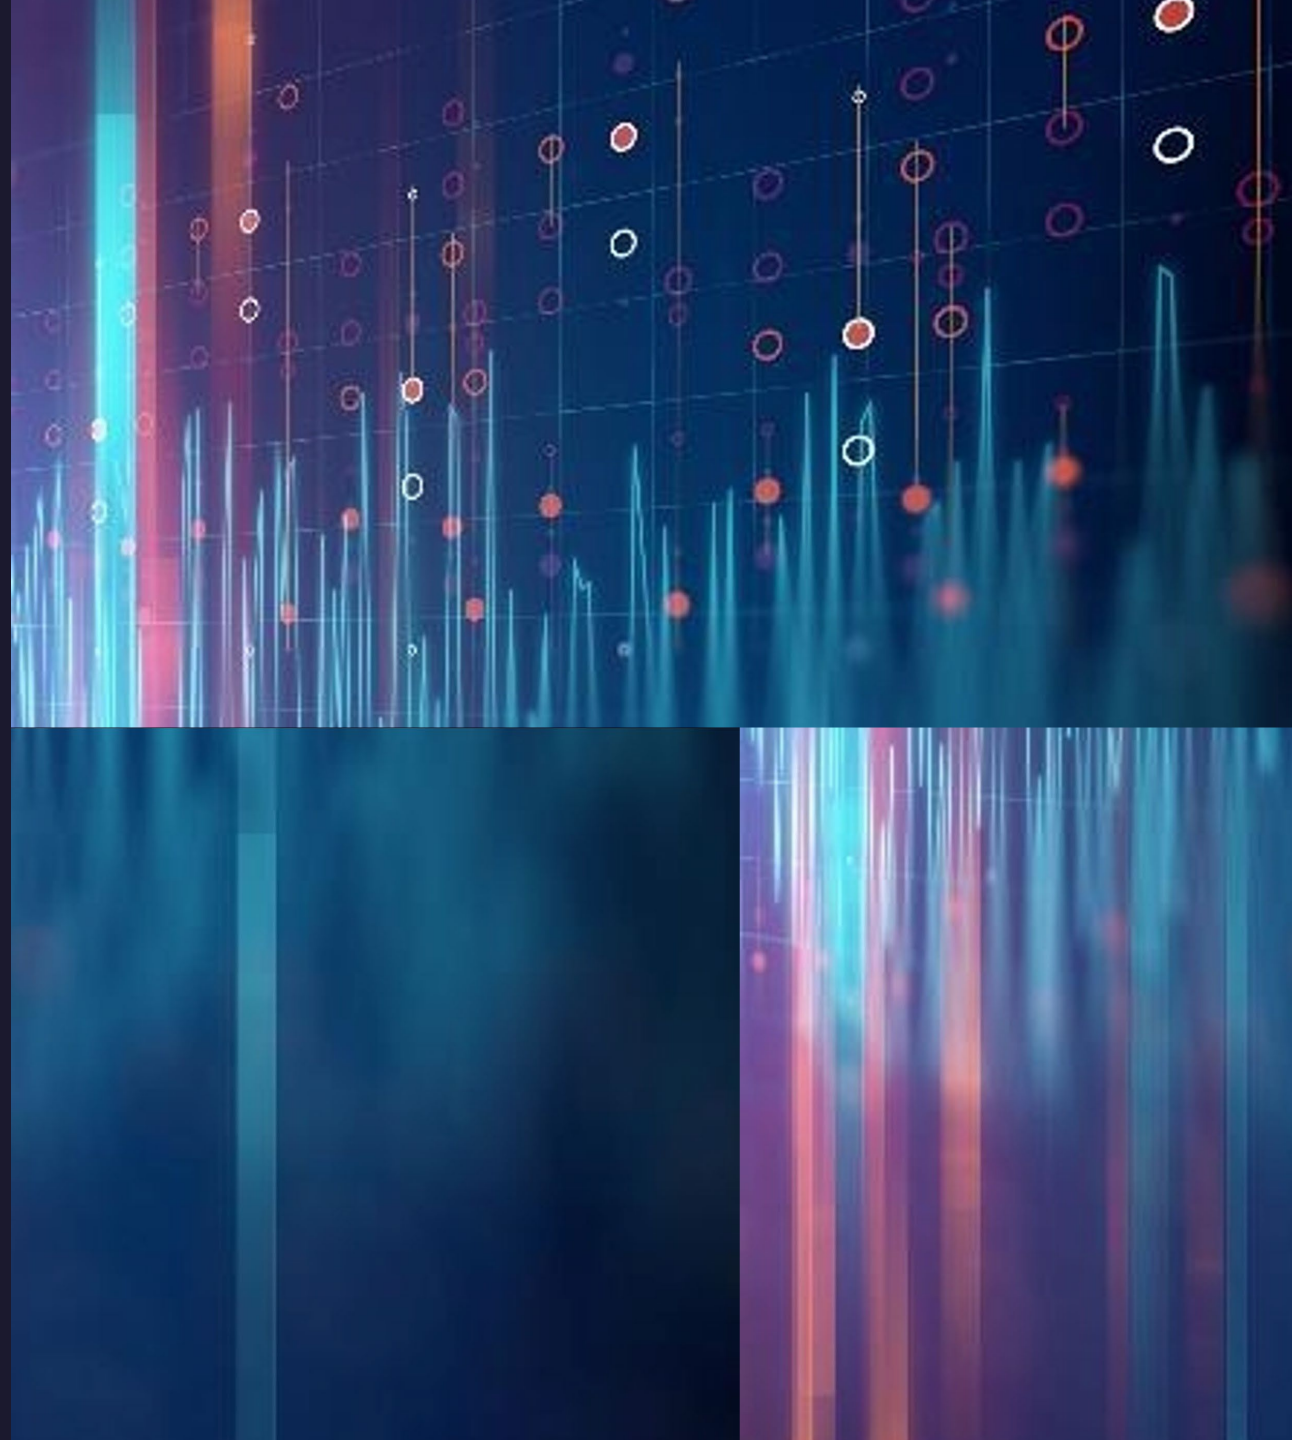

If you have any questions, reach out to your advisor!
