

CESW scholarships for 1st year incoming students

Merit Based Scholarships

Candidates identified and approved by the scholarship/financial aid appeals committee (comprised of both financial aid and admissions staff members) through the admissions review process and/or appeal process

Barbara Jo Heck Brown 49 Scholarship

Will support an incoming freshman majoring in Elementary Education with a GPA of 3.0 or higher and evidence of school, religious, and community activities. Recipients will be selected based on information submitted during the existing admissions review process.

Class of 1943 Scholarship

Will support an incoming freshman with high academic performance who is majoring in Education. Recipients will be selected based on information submitted during the existing admissions review process.

Class of 54 Education Scholarship

Will support an incoming freshman with high academic performance who is majoring in Education. Recipients will be selected based on information submitted during the existing admissions review process.

School of Ed – Kenny Scholarship

Will support an incoming first year student with major in the College of Education. Recipients will be selected based on information submitted during the existing admissions review process.

Need Based Scholarships

Recipients are selected by the financial aid scholarship committee, in collaboration with scholarship/financial aid appeals committee review committee as needed, from applicants who have completed the WCU General Scholarship Application which opens in February each year.

Elizabeth Cooper Walls Gibson

Will support an incoming, first-year, African American student from any Chester County high school. Student must have demonstrated financial need and plan to pursue a degree in Education. Scholarship is renewable for 4 years.

Nancy Higgins Knauer Scholarship in EDE

Will support an incoming first-year student majoring in Elementary Education with demonstrated financial need